Order of service

National anthem:

E Ihowā Atua,
O ngā iwi mātou rā
Āta whakarangona;
Me aroha noa
Kia hua ko te pai;
Kia tau tō atawhai;
Manaakitia mai
Aotearoa

God of Nations at Thy feet,
In the bonds of love we meet,
Hear our voices, we entreat,
God defend our free land.
Guard Pacific's triple star
From the shafts of strife and war,
Make her praises heard afar,
God defend New Zealand.

Invocation: John Chapter 15:13, Rev John Davison

Prayer: Rev John Davison

Hymn: Anzac Hymn (Tune - Abide With Me)

Honour the dead, our country's fighting brave,
Honour our children left in foreign grave,
Where poppies blow and sorrow seeds her flowers,
Honour the crosses marked forever ours.

Weep for the places ravaged with our blood,
Weep for the young bones buried in the mud.
Weep for the power of violence and greed,
Weep for the deals done in the name of need.

Honour the brave whose conscience was their call,
Answered no bugle, went against the wall,
Suffered in prisons of contempt and shame
Branded as cowards, in our country's name.

Weep for the waste of all that might have been,
Weep for the cost that war has made obscene,
Weep for the homes that ache with human pain,
Weep that we ever sanction war again.

Honour the dream for which our nation bled,
Held now in trust to justify the dead,
Honour their vision on this ANZAC Day,
Peace known in freedom peace the only way.

Final prayer [All]:

Loving God we give you thanks and praise for our country and what we have achieved together. Increase our trust in one another; strengthen our quest for justice and bring us to unity and a common purpose. You have made us of one blood, make us also of one mind.

Hymn: I have a Dream. Ian Collings.

Tune Finlandia (A tribute to Martin Luther King)

I have a dream that people will be free
no longer prey to greed and tyranny;
where structures of oppression will fall down,
and seeds of justice on this earth are sown,
I dream a world where all can live as one;
where love is known, God's will is surely done.

I have a dream that children will be fed,
both young and old receive their daily bread,
a home be found for every refugee,
all humankind know greater dignity.
I dream a world where deeds of love are found and acts of kindness everywhere abound.

I have a dream that valleys will arise
and hill and mountains fall before our eyes,
where rough is smoothed and crooked places straight

when Christ shall reign and love replaces hate,
I dream fears that tear us all apart
shall be dissolved by love within each heart.
I have a dream that knows the lasting worth of every person living on this earth,
but dreams will fade like mists in morning sun
without the will to see that right is done - so, wide awake, I seek the just and true, that all God's children might receive their due.

Wreath Laying:

Wreaths and poppies are laid at the base of the flagpole.

Parade to Attention: Last Post, Greg McEwen

Ode to the Fallen, followed by a minute's silence.

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
we will remember them.

[All] We will remember them.
